Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (ICA) s.21 and the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (MIA) s. 24,25 and 26 (whichever is applicable) to tell Us pursuant to the ICA: anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may be relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms; or, pursuant to the MIA: every material circumstance which is known to You or which ought to be known to You which would influence Us in fixing the Premium or determining whether to accept the risk.

Where the Insurance Contract Acts applies: if You do not tell us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay you if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

External Dispute Resolution

Our Internal Dispute Resolution Service is designed to seek to resolve any complaints or disputes that may arise. However, if We are unable to resolve Your dispute to Your satisfaction within 30 days, We will inform You of the reasons for the delay and that You can take Your dispute to Our EDR scheme, administered by the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), even if We are still considering it (and provided Your dispute is within AFCA Terms of Reference). We are a member of AFCA which is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution scheme and it may be able to resolve Your dispute. You may be entitled to assistance from the AFCA, however this is subject to the claim circumstances and the AFCA eligibility criteria.

Before the end of that 30 day period We will inform You that You have this right and details of how to access Our EDR Scheme.

AFCA is responsible for monitoring compliance with the General Insurance Code of Practice. It is available to customers and third parties who fall within its Terms of Reference and is an impartial body that is completely independent of Us. AFCA will initially determine whether Your dispute falls within its Terms of Reference and will notify You whether it may proceed to review Your dispute.

Your dispute must be lodged with AFCA within two years of the date of Our final decision.

Where AFCA Terms of Reference do not extend to Your dispute We will advise You to seek independent legal advice or give You information about other external dispute resolution options, if any, that are available to You.

CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO THIS POLICY

1. Your duty of disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to tell Us anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for;
- is common knowledge;
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive Your duty to tell Us about.

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (ICA) s.21 and the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (MIA) s. 24,25 and 26 (whichever is applicable) to tell Us pursuant to the ICA: anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may be relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms; or, pursuant to the MIA: every material circumstance which is known to You or which ought to be known to You which would influence Us in fixing the Premium or determining whether to accept the risk.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Where the Marine Insurance Act 1909 applies;

if You fail to comply with Your duty of disclosure, We may avoid the contract from its beginning.

Who must tell Us

Everyone who is Covered under the Policy is required to comply with the duty of disclosure, including Your broker or Your agent.

2. Due observance

If You fail to comply with any provision of Your Policy, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, but in any event Our rights will be subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) or the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth), whichever is applicable.

3. Premiums and declarations

The Premium payable under this Policy is based on the estimated gross revenue and information provided by You in the Insurance Proposal or declaration for the Period of Insurance in relation to the extent of Your Business Activities.

Unless otherwise agreed:

- a) if the deposit premium is $5,000 or less, the deposit premium will be regarded as the minimum Premium for the Period of Insurance shown in the current Policy Schedule and no adjustment or declaration of gross revenue is required, provided Your gross revenue does not increase by more than 10%.
- b) If the deposit premium is more than $5,000 You must supply a declaration of gross revenue within thirty (30) days of the expiry of the Period of Insurance. An adjustment will be made to the deposit premium, based on rates agreed at the beginning of the Period of Insurance. If the adjusted Premium exceeds the deposit premium, You must pay the difference to Us.

Your declaration of gross revenue must be Your total gross earnings, including amounts paid or payable, in relation to Your Business Activities during the Period of Insurance, and must include the value of all services, products and parts supplied by You as part of those Activities.

CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO THIS POLICY

4. Inspection of books and operations

We shall be permitted but not obligated to inspect Your property and operations at any time. Neither Our right to make inspections nor the making thereof nor any report thereon shall constitute an undertaking on behalf of or for the benefit of You or others, to determine or warrant that such property or operations are safe.

You are required to keep accurate records of all gross earnings, including amounts paid or payable, from Your marine contractors activities and on request provide Us with an audited copy of these records.

If We request an audited copy of these records and this is not available, We may appoint an auditor, at our discretion, and You must make all relevant records available to the auditor.

The fees for such an audit are payable by Us but where the audit reveals misrepresentation of the required figures, whether or not the misrepresentation is intended, You will reimburse Us for the auditor's fees.

5. Alteration of risk

You must provide Us with immediate written notice of:

- a) every change which materially varies any of the facts or circumstances existing at the commencement of this Policy that comes to Your knowledge, which will also be deemed to include the knowledge of any Person whose knowledge would in law be Your knowledge; and
- b) if You do not provide such notification before an Occurrence giving rise to a claim under this Policy then, subject to either the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), or the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth), We may refuse to pay a claim, either in whole or in part.

6. Cancellation

- c) Where You represent more than one person or entity, We will only carry out Your request for cancellation where a written notification to cancel is received from all parties named in Your Policy Schedule;

Premium adjustment as a result of cancellation:

- d) Where cancellation is to be effected, You are required to provide Us with a declaration of Your actual gross revenue (referred to in clause 4: "Premium and declarations") from the commencement of the Period of Insurance to the proposed cancellation date of the Policy.
- e) If the adjusted Premium for the period prior to the cancellation date is less than the annual deposit Premium, We will refund the difference between the adjusted Premium and the annual deposit Premium, subject to the minimum Premium as shown in Your Policy Schedule applying. At our sole discretion, we may elect to waive the application of any agreed minimum premium, in which case We will refund premium for each day of the unexpired Period of Insurance. That premium will be calculated by dividing the premium by the number of days of the Period of Insurance.
- f) If the adjusted Premium for the period prior to the cancellation date exceeds the annual deposit Premium, You must pay that difference to Us. That additional Premium payable owed to us is payable by the date advised to You.
- g) If the cancellation is due to insolvency or the takeover of Your company, consideration will be given to reducing the minimum Premium depending on the circumstances, claims, and Our exposure during the Period of Insurance, but this consideration remains at Our absolute discretion.

In providing any refund of Premium some government taxes and duties are not refundable. If this applies to Your Policy, then no refund of such taxes and duties will be made.

CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO THIS POLICY

7. Goods and Services Tax

- a) The amount of Premium paid by You for Your Policy includes an amount for GST on the Premium. As You are a commercial entity, You must inform Us of the extent to which You are entitled to an input tax credit for that GST amount each time that You make a claim under Your Policy;
- b) No payment will be made to You for any GST liability that You may incur on the settlement of a claim if You do not inform Us of Your entitlement or correct entitlement to any input tax credit;
- c) Despite the other provisions of this insurance (including provisions in the wordings, Your Policy Schedule or any endorsement) Our liability to You will be calculated taking into account any input tax credit to which You are entitled for any acquisition which is relevant to Your claim, or to which You would have been entitled were You to have made a relevant acquisition; and if the Sum Insured is not sufficient to Cover Your loss, We will only pay any GST (less any relevant input tax credit) that relates to Our proportion of Your loss.

12. Causing or contributing to loss

We may refuse to pay a claim, or may reduce the amount payable under a claim, to the extent that Your breach of any condition of Your Policy causes or contributes to loss, damage or liability or prejudices Our interests or rights, in respect of that claim.

CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO THIS POLICY

At Your own expense You and any person acting for You or on Your behalf must exercise reasonable care and take precautions and use all due diligence to:

For the purposes of this clause, loss includes any legal and administrative costs incurred by either party in the recovery.

21. Contribution to costs

If We have not exercised Our rights under clause 21: Payment of Limit of Indemnity (above), Our liability to pay costs and expenses, where any sum or sums exceeding the appropriate Limit of Indemnity have to be paid to dispose of a claim or claims, will be limited to such proportion of the said costs and expenses as such Limit of Indemnity bears to the amount actually so paid, or to be paid.

22. Medicare notification

We will notify Medicare under the Health and Other Services (Compensation) Act 1995, where any payment is due or claim for compensation is lodged under that Act. If a Commonwealth issued 'Notice of Charge' deems that an amount is due to the Commonwealth, that amount will be paid to the Commonwealth prior to and nett of any further compensation payment being made.
